

Image

Donghee Kim

About

Sam-gyup-sal

Bi-bim-bap

About us

We have food that you can enjoy without knowing what to order by limiting the menu for people who does not know about Korean food. The menu we have is well known to people who already know about Korean food that people love.

- Home
- Contact

Galbi

beef short-rib, garlic, onion, apple, pear, soy sauce

Marinated Short-rib

Koreans have long liked ribs to the extent that the word galbi appeared in the Seungjeongwon Diary on June 24, 1639, the 17th year of King Injo's reign (1639). Since the mid-1920s, grilled beef ribs have become a full-fledged food-out culture.

beef short-rib, garlic, onion, apple, pear, soy sauce

Marinated Short-rib

Koreans have long liked ribs to the extent that the word galbi appeared in the Seungjeongwon 1639, the 17th year of King Injo's reign (1639). Since the mid-1920s, grilled beef ribs have become a food-out culture.

 HOME

NEXT

 CONTACT

Sam-gyup-sal

Porkbelly, salt, pepper

Porkbelly

Koreans have enjoyed eating beef more than pork. The trend of grilling pork became popular from the 1960s to the 1970s.

Porkbelly, salt, pepper

Porkbelly

Koreans have enjoyed eating beef more than pork. The trend of grilling pork became popular from the 1970s.

HOME

PREVIOUS

NEXT

CONTACT

Bi-bim-bap

rice with meat and assorted vegetables

Bibimbap

One of the stories of how bibimbap created was after celebrating the New Year, people ate leftover side dishes mixed with rice.

rice with meat and assorted vegetables

Bibimbap

One of the stories of how bibimbap created was after celebrating the New Year, people ate mixed with rice.

HOME

PREVIOUS

CONTACT

Contact Us

Private Dining & Weddings

full restraunt takeover for up to 100 guests

Small parties & drinks

Small parties are welcome

Please let us know if you have allergies or if you want to change ingredients of the food

Address

65-30 Kissena Blvd,
Queens, NY 11367

Phone

(123)567-8910

Email

temporary@tempmail.net

Send Message

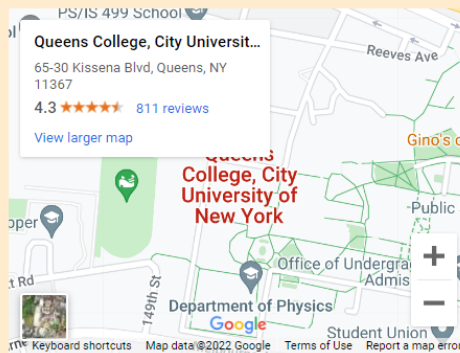

Full Name

Email

type your messaege

send

 Home

Activate Wind